THE Yeoman says that the school fund of Kentucky now amounts to $1,000,000. The next thing is to see that the schools get the benefit of it.

get the benefit of it.

The proposition to abolish the tobacco tax, at Washington, is received with more favor than was expected. The movement is likely to have considerable strength.

How. W. O. Brader, of Kentucky, has been employed to prosecute the Star Route cases. A prosecutor is the thing needed as a white-washer has been employed theretofore.

SENATOR HARRISON, of Indiana, thinks Blaine is the strongest Republicant candidate for the Presidency, and thinks that he will secure the nomination without much opposition. out much opposition.

Out much opposition.

In the vicinity of Lexington, in the past two months, fifteen stallions and eighty-nine fillies have been sold for a total of $102,005, mal yet it takes half a dozen feuds and about six years to get a $50 school honse built.

**Senator Sherman's quoted as saying: "We are neither in a panic mor on the verge of it, unless my jndgment is seriously at fault. The present troubles are local, not general. Reckless speculation, the creation of fictitious values in stocks and sharp competition on railroad securities are the causes of the existing difficulties."
